

Summoning of the Four Wind Demons

An excerpt from Necronomicon Gnosis: A Practical Introduction

Asenath Mason

The ritual is based on the Simon Necronomicon. The purpose of this working is the summoning of the elemental forces as represented by the four wind daemons: Ustur, Sed, Lamas, and Nattig. The ritual may function as a tool of communication with the wind entities themselves or a preliminary stage to further work with similar forces.

Face the altar and begin the ceremony:

In the name of Pazuzu, lord of all spirits of the air,
And in the name of Nyarlathotep, the Haunter of the Dark,
I summon the daemons of the four cardinal directions! Hear my calling and come forth!

Facing North:

I invoke you, Ustur, Lord of the Northern Wind! I summon you, who rules Aquarius and the month of Shabatu! Come to me, for I am the wanderer on the path of the Ancients! Whisper to me forgotten secrets of Darkness and arcane mysteries of the North!

Envision a dark shape of a human figure entering the temple through the Northern Gate.

Facing West:

I invoke you, Nattig, Lord of the Western Wind! I summon you, who rules Scorpio and the month of Arahshamma! Come to me, for I am the participant of the ancient rites! Lead me into the black ocean of Tiamat and Absu, from which the whole universe emerged!

Envision a figure resembling a human being, but with the face, wings and talons of an eagle, entering the temple through the Western Gate.

Facing South:

I invoke you, Lamas, Lord of the Southern Wind! I summon you, who rules Leo and the month of Abu! Come to me, for I am the priest (priestess) of forgotten gods! Light up the Night with your scorching flame and reveal to me the mysteries of the Sun!

Envision a figure with a human face and the body of a lion entering the temple through the Southern Gate.

Facing East:

I invoke you, Sed, Lord of the Eastern Wind! I summon you, who rules Taurus and the month of Airu! Come to me, for I am the living manifestation of the Dragon! Reveal to me ancient wisdom that you have witnessed and guarded since the beginning of time!

Envision a bull with a human face entering the temple through the Eastern Gate.

Face the altar again:

Come forth, lords of the winds! I summon you from your dwelling place - from Nuzku upon Uru! From spaces between the Sun and the Moon, day and night, light and darkness! Through the force of IGIGI! Come to me!

KIA! ANNA! AG! BADUR!

By the power of the Sign of Voor and in the name of the First Dragon of the Void!

Make the Sign of Voor as found in Al Azif

HO DRAKON HO MEGAS!

Focus on the elemental forces flowing from the four cardinal directions, surrounding you and conjoining in the center of the ritual space. Feel the breath of the four winds on your skin, let them carry you and lead you through astral paths and dimensions.
